Tucson, AZ – On Saturday, August 12th, the NOVA® Home Loans Arizona Bowl hosted the first annual Roll for The Bowl Bowling Fundraiser at Lucky Strike Lanes on Speedway Boulevard in Tucson, Arizona. The Bowl committee partnered with the Centurions to help make this great event a success and because of their partnership, all the proceeds will be donated to their charitable partners.

During the NOVA® Home Loans Arizona Bowl Kickoff Luncheon presented by Tucson Lifestyle Magazine, Centurion President Joe Dhuey, members Michael Osborne, Steve Shepherd, and Sean Murray, accepted a donation of $7,000 from The Bowl to the Centurions of Southern Arizona Charitable Foundation.

The Centurions is a 501(c)3 charitable organization, that supports a wide range of charitable organizations and projects in Southern Arizona. The Centurions maintain a membership of 100 active members that are among Southern Arizona's most prominent business and civic leaders. Originally founded in 1969 as an associate support group of St. Mary's Hospital, the Centurion name was chosen to honor the one hundred years of service given to Southern Arizona by Carondelet St. Mary's Hospital. The name further reflects the members' focus on business and civic leadership in the community by the historical reference to the Roman Centurion, a leader of 100 soldiers.

The NOVA® Home Loans Arizona Bowl, will take place on Friday, December 29 at 3:30pm at Arizona Stadium.

The NOVA® Home Loans Arizona Bowl (a non-profit organization) was sanctioned in March 2015 as the 41st NCAA college football game and the third bowl game staged in Arizona.
